PANAMA CITY BEACH - Eola Capital, an Orlando-based real estate investment company, will work with Counts Real Estate Group to lease space in its Panama City Beach properties, which include Beckrich One and Two in the Beckrich Business Park. Chris McCall, senior associate in the commercial division of Counts Real Estate Group, has been named office leasing agent.

McCall has more than 12 years of commercial real estate experience and currently specializes in investment sales, commercial development, leasing and financial analysis at Counts Real Estate Group. A Bay County resident since 1984, McCall is a graduate of Florida State University.

The 34,000sf, Class A, two-story Beckrich One and Two buildings are at 100 and 200 Beckrich Road, just one mile from the beach at the intersection of Beckrich Road and Panama City Beach Parkway. The mirror buildings are in a state-of-the-art planned suburban office complex built in 2002.
