Last updated December 4th, 2008.

TAMPA - Eola Capital, an Orlando-based real-estate investment company, has signed an 81,500sf, 10-year lease at the Sabal Corporate Center with the Fort Lauderdale-based Nova Southeastern University.

The three-story, suburban office building in Tampa will serve as the new location for NSU's Tampa Student Educational Center. NSU has other Student Educational Centers in Miami, West Palm Beach, Orlando, Jacksonville and Fort Myers. Jamie Puddicombe of Palmaple Corp. represented the tenant in the acquisition of the space.

NSU currently leases 41,000sf of office space in Eola Capital's Sabal Park Plaza building. The new space will double NSU's Tampa operations.
